

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT IN ROSCREA.

A sad burning accident occurred at Cullaroon, Roscrea, on Monday, resulting in the death of a child named Mary Byrne, aged two years. While her mother's back was turned for a short time the child threw some papers in the fire, the flames of which caught her clothes. The mother rushed to the child's assistance and was also severely burned in her anxiety to quench the flames. The child was so much burned that she died shortly afterwards.
